Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for the information which you sent us concerning the above-named individual. We have now reviewed this case with our attorney and feel that some more information is needed.

1 Did you receive a resignation from the individual in writing?

2 Do you have any information concerning any other situations in which youth were involved in the same type of situations related to the use of intoxicating beverages?

3 Can you shed more light on the unsubstantiated charges of homosexual relations? Is someone willing to give a statement concerning the acts that took place and the times and places that were involved?

Today it is very difficult to place people on the file and refuse them registration unless we have much substantiation. Have any charges been filed that would lead to an arrest at the present time?

All of this information will certainly help us as we try to refuse registration at a future date.

Sincerely,

Paul I. Ernst, Director

CONF007675

DYKES_I_005546

In response to inquiry of [REDACTED]

- 1) No, he did not tender a resignation, nor did he respond to suggestions to meet with the Church leaders. Instead, he just "dropped out" of communications when "exposed" and was reported to have re-acted in a nasty negative manner when approached about his relationship to Scouting subsequently.
- 2) In regards to other information, it was reported that he telephoned [REDACTED] pretending to be a parent, and had the boy released early from school where he picked him up. The parents later found out.
- 3) A Scout in Troop [REDACTED] reported homosexual assault on himself from [REDACTED] approximately one year before the current incident in question. The boy went to [REDACTED], the pastor, who decided that the boy was unbalanced - he had received some counselling. The boy never changed his story of [REDACTED]'s assault and recently, the priest relected that he may have been in error.
- 4) As far as character in general, it was reported that [REDACTED] was fired from his last job as a bartender by the Committee Chairman, who learned this from the owner, a personal friend.
- 5) There are no written or sworn statements, except that same could be obtained from the [REDACTED] who's son was fed intoxicants in [REDACTED]'s apartment, when he was to have taken the boys shopping from a camp-out. Further, the man's military service record with the U.S. Army could be searched as there is question about the type of discharge he may possess.

Perhaps the Boy Scouts of America could benefit from an application with additional information required, such as military service and arrest information.
